

Community Foundation of Wabash County, Inc.
Donor or Fund Representative Initiated Fundraising Policy

INTRODUCTION

Thank you for your interest in raising money for a fund established within the Community Foundation of Wabash County, Inc. (the "Foundation"). As the Foundation is not staffed to operate public fundraising efforts or events for the many component funds of the Foundation, your interest is commendable. Many of these volunteer efforts and events rely upon the use of the Foundation's tax-exempt status to offer contributors a charitable tax deduction for their support. For this and other reasons outlined in this policy, it is important for community minded individuals to understand the guidelines established in this document. The Foundation appreciates your interest and motivation in raising money for worthy causes and we look forward to working with you.

This policy outlines FOUR options for fundraising for a component fund at the Foundation and provides guidelines for each option. When an individual or group fundraises for a component fund, such fundraising (for tax purposes) is being done on behalf of the Foundation. A number of significant tax, accounting and public relations issues may arise.

The policy below has been developed to protect donors, fundraising groups and the Foundation by:

1. Ensuring that donors' fundraising efforts comply with IRS and other governmental regulations thereby protecting fundraising groups and the Foundation from unintended tax consequences and penalties;
2. Ensuring that donors receive the appropriate acknowledgement; and
3. Protecting the brand identity of the Foundation including its logo.

We appreciate your cooperation in complying with the important requirements established in these guidelines. We reserve the right to refuse any assets that have been raised in violation of this policy.

"Solicitations" in this policy refers to any time people are asked verbally, in writing or by electronic means to contribute to a fund. The term "fundraising events" includes, but is not limited to receptions, dinners and parties; sports or entertainment events; raffles and/or auctions; and other similar activities.

The Foundation reserves the right to amend, revise or change this Policy at any time or from time to time, without notice, at its sole discretion. If you have any questions about the Policy or want to confirm you have the latest revisions, please contact the Foundation at 260-982-4824.

REQUIRED PRE-APPROVAL FOR FUNDRAISING

Pre-Approval of Fundraising Events

Any individual or nonprofit group desiring to hold fundraising events for a component fund of the Foundation AND offer tax deductions to donors through the Foundation, must first submit a Deductible Fundraising Application Form to the Foundation at least 10 days prior to each event for approval. If the application is approved, the guidelines provided under: "Option 4. Proceeds from an event for which donors are offered a tax deduction" must be carefully observed.

Contact the Foundation office at 105 W. Second Street, Suite 100, North Manchester, Indiana or phone 260-982-4824 to request a copy of the Deductible Fundraising Application Form.

The Foundation is a donor service provider, grantmaker, catalyst and convener serving a range of charitable needs and interests in our area. In light of those roles, there are some types of activities to which the Foundation will not lend its name or that of any of its funds. These might include events involving controversial speakers or events with activities considered outside the standards of tastefulness or political events. The Foundation, in its sole discretion, will determine the appropriateness of its sponsorship on a case-by-case basis.

Upon approval of an event, the applicant will proceed according to the Foundation's guidelines below.

Any individual or nonprofit group NOT desiring to offer tax deductions to donors may fundraise without submitting an application for approval; however, they must follow the guidelines below under 'Option 3. Proceeds from an event for which donors are not offered a tax deduction.' Notify the Foundation of your plans at least 10 days prior to your event. We want to be aware of your fundraising event in case of inquiries from the public.

Review of Fund Solicitation

Any individual or nonprofit group desiring to fundraise for a component fund of the Foundation should submit promotional materials to the Foundation, we would like to review the material prior to printing and distribution. This includes, but is not limited to, any written or spoken materials, letterhead, brochures, signs, website content, radio and television announcements related to solicitations to promote a fund.

Fundraising by 501(c)(3) Public Charities

As described below in "Option 2 Fundraising sponsored by a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization," a nonprofit 501(c)(3) organization raising funds through solicitation, events or other means for a component fund that benefits the organization does not need to request approval for its events or solicitations. This is true as long as the organization is handling all charitable gift acknowledgments. It would be helpful however to know your plans to benefit your endowment, in the event of inquiries.

GUIDELINES

These guidelines cover the fundraising options available to individuals and non-profit groups:

- Option 1. Solicitation of tax-deductible gifts contributed to a fund at the Foundation, by a non c3 group
- Option 2. Fundraising sponsored by a 501(c)(3) organization
- Option 3. Proceeds from an event for which donors are not offered a tax deduction
- Option 4. Proceeds from an event for which donors are offered a tax deduction

Option 1. Direct tax-deductible gifts to a fund within the Foundation

You may promote a fund through various forms of passive marketing including brochures, posters, information sessions or a request of money through an appeal letter to friends and associates.

The following guidelines pertain to this fundraising option:

- 1. Foundation Identification. If requested, an electronic logo will be provided for use on all printed materials. All materials must clearly state the fund's name as the "Name of Fund, a component fund of the Community Foundation of Wabash County, Inc." and all fundraising materials must overtly state that funds are being raised by the group, as opposed to the Foundation.
- 2. Foundation Support. Please speak with us about your plans. We would be pleased to list your event on our website and provide an on-line donation portal to PayPal.
- 3. Paid Solicitors. You may not pay a for-profit fundraiser to solicit donations for a component fund of the Foundation.
- 4. Gifts to the Foundation. In response to your efforts a donor may make a gift directly to the fund. In that case, he/she should make the check payable to the Community Foundation of Wabash County with the benefiting fund name noted on the memo line. Gifts of publically traded stocks or bonds may also be made directly to the Foundation with indication of the fund to benefit. Donors will receive a gift acknowledgement letter from the Foundation indicating the gift is tax deductible as permitted by law.

5. Online Gifts. You are welcome to promote the Foundation's online giving platform as a convenient method for donors to give to a component fund. Please call our office to coordinate the site. If you do so, please note in your solicitation materials that donors who choose to give this way will see the charge attributed to the Foundation gift on their credit card statements. The Foundation will provide acknowledgment letters for these gifts, including language stating that the letter serves as an official receipt for IRS purposes for a charitable tax deduction.

6. Notification of Gifts. If requested, fund founders or other interested parties (such as family members of the individual memorialized by a fund) may be notified upon receipt of an online giving. The Foundation generally will report to you the names and addresses of donors and donation totals but not individual gift amounts.

Option 2. Event or solicitation sponsored by a 501(c)(3) organization with proceeds to benefit a fund at the Foundation.

You may make a gift of the proceeds from an event or solicitation sponsored by a 501(c)(3) organization that has a fund at the Foundation for the benefit of that organization.

The following guidelines pertain to this fundraising option:

1. Gift Acknowledgment and Stated Purpose of Fundraiser. Organizations with their own 501(c)(3) status may sponsor a fundraising event or solicitation promoting their organization and deposit the net proceeds into the organization's fund at the Foundation. Where gifts are made to the organization, you will issue the acknowledgment letters to donors. If you are publicly stating the proceeds will be deposited into a fund at the Foundation, all printed and spoken material must clearly state the fund's name as the "Name of Fund, a component fund of the Community Foundation of Wabash County, Inc."

2. Legal Compliance. Organizations should ensure their compliance with all applicable IRS and Indiana state laws and regulations regarding solicitation, acknowledgment and tax deductibility of gifts. Please let us know if we can help.

3. Online Giving. You are welcome to promote the Foundation's online giving platform as a convenient method for gifts to a fund. If you do so, please note in your solicitation materials that donors who choose to give this way will see the charge attributed to the Foundation gift on credit card statements. The Foundation will provide acknowledgment letters for these gifts, including language stating that the letter serves as an official receipt for IRS purposes for a charitable tax deduction. Please be aware that online gifts may carry an external processing fee which will be charged to the fund.

4. Planned Giving. Similarly, you are welcome to encourage donors to consider planned gifts to the component fund in the Foundation that benefits your agency. You may utilize the Foundation's services to arrange these gifts. The Foundation will notify benefiting agencies, with donor permission if required, when it is aware such gifts have been arranged.

5. Notification of Gifts. Unless otherwise strictly prohibited by the donor, organizations are notified upon receipt of any gifts directly to the funds that benefit them. The fund statement for an organization's fund periodically provided by the Foundation will reflect total fund growth through contributions.

Option 3. Proceeds from an event for which donors are not offered a tax deduction.

Charitable groups may make a gift to a component fund of the Foundation from the proceeds of an event for which donors are not offered a charitable tax deduction.

This is the simplest way of conducting event-based fundraising to benefit a component fund of the Foundation. Fundraising events staged independently of the Foundation but for the benefit of one of its component funds offer these benefits and responsibilities:

1. Simplest method for conducting fundraising events.
2. Cannot use the Foundation identity, except to reference that net proceeds will be donated to the component fund.
3. Gifts are not tax deductible.
4. Expenses of the fundraising are paid from the proceeds prior to contribution to the fund.

Please notify the Foundation regarding your plans at least 10 days prior to your event so we are aware of your fundraising event in case of inquiries from the public. Furthermore, please acknowledge you have read and will abide by this Donor Initiated Fundraising Policy. A Nondeductible Fundraising Notification Form is provided below and additional copies are available upon request.

Under this option, fundraising may be conducted by an individual, group or by an organization seeking to benefit a fund. Generally, the person or group that plans and executes the fundraiser makes one lump sum donation (net of expenses) to the fund. A donor may not take a charitable tax deduction for the contribution. For this Option, the Foundation will not acknowledge the individual contributors of the dollars and no one will receive a charitable deduction for participating in the event. A receipt for the net amount received is sent to the organizing person or group.

Contributions to a fundraiser are only tax deductible when they are received and acknowledged directly by a qualified nonprofit organization.

The following guidelines pertain to this fundraising option:

1. Stated Purpose of Fundraiser. An individual or group that plans and executes a fundraising event may state that the net proceeds will benefit the general purpose of the fund, i.e. the arts or hunger relief. If publicly stating the net proceeds will be deposited into a fund at the Foundation, all printed and spoken material must clearly state that: "The net proceeds of this event will be contributed to the Name of Fund, a component fund of the Community Foundation of Wabash County, Inc."

2. Tax Deduction. The individual or group may not use the Foundation's tax exempt number in connection with the event. Contributions made as a result of a fundraising event will not qualify as a tax deductible charitable gift to the Foundation.

3. Insurance and Government Regulations. Event organizers are responsible for obtaining and paying for any necessary insurance, permits, licenses, approvals, etc. Please note that events or activities that include raffles or other games of chance are regulated by state and local governments and must be specifically reviewed and authorized by the appropriate branch of government before proceeding.

4. Contracts and Agreements. Fundraising events often require certificates of insurance or signed contracts. When events are sponsored independently of the Foundation the name of the Foundation or the fund must not appear on any contract or agreement.

5. Checks Payable to Organizers. Individual participants in the event (ticket purchasers, sponsors, golf players, etc.) should make their payments to the organizing individual or group, not to the Foundation or the fund.

6. Gift Acknowledgment. The organizers may record the contributors' names and addresses and provide a courtesy acknowledgement. The acknowledgement letter may not include any language stating that the letter serves as an official receipt for IRS purposes or include any reference to tax deductibility. Letters may state: "The net proceeds of this event will benefit the Name of Fund, a component fund of the Community Foundation of Wabash County, Inc."

7. Payment of Expenses. The organizers pay all expenses and send the net proceeds of the fundraiser to the Foundation for addition to the fund. The Foundation records the gift as coming from unnamed third-party donors. Please note the Foundation is prohibited by law from reimbursing the planner(s) for expenses, therefore, the planner(s) must deduct expenses before sending the net proceeds to the Foundation.

Option 4. Proceeds from an event for which donors are offered a tax deduction.

You may make a gift to the fund from the proceeds of an event for which the Foundation offers donors a charitable tax deduction.

Any individual or nonprofit group desiring to hold fundraising events for a component fund of the Foundation AND offer tax deductions to donors through the Foundation, must submit a Deductible Fundraising Application Form to the Foundation at least 10 days prior to each event for approval. If the application is approved these guidelines must be followed.

It is important to clearly understand and delineate the responsibilities of the Foundation and the fundraising organizers under this option.

The responsibilities of the Foundation will be for:

- the management of such money and property as it may accept into the component fund from Donors, other contributors and sources;
- the application of income and principal to charitable uses, all in accordance with the governing documents of the Foundation; and providing appropriate acknowledgments to Donors.

The organizers of the fundraiser will retain responsibility for all approved public fundraising events and matters related to them including:

- Payment of all costs and expenses;
- Compliance with laws; and
- Reporting and other requirements of every kind such as licensing, tax payment and liability insurance covering the Foundation.

The following guidelines pertain to this fundraising option:

1. Payment of Expenses. The fundraising organizers will be responsible for all expenses and maintain appropriate financial controls and records related to fundraising events. The fundraising organizers will submit a budget to the Foundation with their application for an event (at least 10 days in advance of the event). How expenses will be paid (either by the fundraising organizers or by the Foundation) should be discussed prior to the event. Regardless of who pays for expenses, copies of invoices and receipts must be provided to the Foundation for our record keeping. If the component fund to benefit from the fundraiser is a donor-advised fund, no expenses may be reimbursed by the Foundation.

2. Checks Payable to Component Fund. Checks related to the event must be made payable to the Community Foundation of Wabash County, Inc. with the component fund noted on the memo line.

3. Receipt of Cash. All proceeds, checks and cash must be delivered to the Foundation along with an accounting of all monies received within one week after the fundraising event. Cash receipts are to be deposited intact. That is, cash receipts are not to be used to pay expenses and then the net cash amount deposited.

4. Tax Deduction / Gift Acknowledgment. The IRS has imposed strict requirements impacting any fundraising. If the steps outlined below are not strictly observed, Donors will be denied a tax deduction, the fundraiser organizers might find themselves unexpectedly subjected to tax on the funds they raise, and either the Foundation or the organizers might be subjected to penalty.

Donors who contribute $250 or more must receive a written acknowledgment from the Foundation in order to claim a tax deduction for the contribution. Receipts are also required for contributions of $75 or more for instances in which the donor receives goods or services of more than nominal value (see quid pro quo under #5 below). The Foundation prefers to acknowledge all cash gifts with a deduction value, even if it is not legally required.

The Foundation will provide the appropriate acknowledgment to the Donors but will require certain detailed information in order to do so. Specifically, the organizers will need to provide the Foundation with:

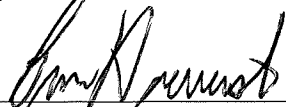

1. The Donor's complete name and address;
2. The date and the amount of the contributions;
3. Whether the contribution was in cash or donated goods;
4. If donated goods/materials, a description of the type of goods/materials and a good faith estimate of the fair market value; and
5. A detailed description of any goods and services provided in exchange for the contribution.

5. Special Considerations for Tax Deductibility. Please be aware that:

- Contributions of services, while appreciated, are generally not deductible.
- Quid pro quo. If the fundraiser organizers provide goods or services in exchange for a donation, certain disclosures are required to be made upon solicitation. For example, if the group is sponsoring a dinner, the donor can only deduct the excess of the ticket price above the fair market value of the dinner. This limitation on the deduction, known as a "quid pro quo disclosure," must be disclosed at the time of solicitation. Disclosure on the ticket to the event is a typical method for making this disclosure. The Foundation must work with the group prior to the solicitation activity, and will need information pertaining to the event such as the ticket prices and the values of the goods or services donors are to receive. The organizers must confirm that the required quid pro quo disclosures are made at the time of solicitation.
- Raffle tickets are not tax-deductible. This must be stated clearly on the face of distributed tickets. (The Foundation cannot hold raffles, nor can they be held under our name.)
- Rummage Sale purchases are not tax-deductible.
- Auctions. Legal counsel for the Foundation shall review, on a case-by-case basis, any proposed ideas for an auction. At that time, tax deductibility of items will be determined.
- Golf Outings Golf Outings as fund-raisers have special requirements imposed by the IRS. Please contact the Foundation office.

6. Liability Insurance and Liability for Losses. The event organizers and the Foundation shall assess the need to secure liability insurance for the group and name the Foundation as additionally insured if appropriate. Activities that present unusual risks (water or other sporting activities; events that feature alcohol; excursions to exotic locations and transportation) may be reviewed by the Foundation's insurance agent.

I affirm that this Donor or Fund Representative Initiated Fundraising Policy was approved by a unanimous vote of the Community Foundation's Board of Directors on May 15, 2018.
